

lites.asia* Regional Lighting Policy Meeting

Bangkok, Thailand

3 - 4 February 2015

MVE Project Activity Overview

Marie Leroy

*Southeast Asia and Pacific Coordinator,
UNEP en.lighten*

Upcoming resources and opportunities

- Product testing and test results interpretation
- Technical training on testing
- Regional database prototype
- Guidebooks
- Webinars
- On-demand support for project proposal development

Testing and test results interpretation

4

- Results on CFL and LED lamp testing available in May
 - GELC and UNEP will assist country with test results interpretation

- Inter-laboratory comparison testing currently ongoing
 - Will help participating laboratories calibrate their equipment and improve their testing results

Bangkok, 3-4 February 2015

Webinars

5

- Communication of Lamp Standards & Labelling Programs to Supply Chain Providers (February)
- Lamp product Performance Tests and Interpretation of Results (March)
- Best practices for enforcing efficient lighting regulations (March)
- CIE Test Method for LED Lamps (April)
- How to create and operate a lighting Product Registry (April)
- Plans for lamp product market research and surveillance (May)

Bangkok, 3-4 February 2015

Guidebooks

6

1. Product Selection and Procurement for Lamp Performance Testing
2. Good practices for photometric laboratories
3. Lamp product performance tests and interpretation of results
4. Best practices for enforcing efficient lighting regulations
5. How to create and operate a lighting product registry

Bangkok, 3-4 February 2015

Trainings and meetings

7

- Efficient lighting policy and regulations country meetings for Cambodia, Lao PDR and Myanmar in February
- Technical training on LED testing at GELC laboratory in April
- UNEP will contact Southeast Asia countries to identify participants (laboratory staff)
- Potential opportunity for interested countries to nominate representative to next IEC TC34 committee meeting

Bangkok, 3-4 February 2015

Thank you

8

- Questions ?
- Suggestions ?

Bangkok, 3-4 February 2015

